

OUR CARE

At Maurice House, our trained staff care for each resident as a unique individual. Everyone is treated with respect, dignity and freedom of choice, in a safe, well-equipped environment which feels like home.

Every resident has a care plan to ensure that all their care needs are met. All residents will also have a named nurse and/or keyworker. Our staff specialise in a model of dementia care based on the Butterfly Household Model.

There are three wings of 10 en-suite bedrooms leading to a central hub area. Each wing has its own lounge, dining room and bathroom. The central hub has a café, hairdresser and activity area. It's a secure environment, and residents living with dementia can walk freely and safely around the house and our two gardens.

OUR ACTIVITIES

Activities run seven days a week and include exercise classes, arts and crafts, flower arranging, bingo, film and computer clubs. There are weekly days out, shopping trips and regular visits from musicians.

Residents who enjoy gardening can continue their hobby in our greenhouse or by tending our raised flowerbeds. Those who are not able to join the regular shopping trips can make use of a weekly mobile shop and library. A hairdresser also visits our home every week.

WHO CAN STAY?

The Royal British Legion has six care homes which provide short and long-term care for serving and ex-Service people and their dependants. Situated around the country, they offer a wide range of services including four with specialist dementia care.

Each home is registered with the Care Quality Commission, and has a Statement of Purpose and Resident Guide (available on request) which clearly define the care and services provided.

Our care home communities include men and women of varied ages and abilities. Our homes are exclusive to ex-Service people and their dependants, so there is always a special camaraderie.

LEGION

WE ARE THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

The Legion is at the heart of a national network that supports our Armed Forces community through thick and thin – ensuring their unique contribution is never forgotten. We've been here since 1921 and we'll be here as long they need us.

We are the country's largest Armed Forces charity, with 235,000 members, 110,000 volunteers and a network of partners and charities that help us give support wherever and whenever it's needed.

We support serving members of the Royal Navy and Royal Marines, British Army, Royal Air Force, Reservists, veterans and their families.

We help veterans young and old transition into civilian life, helping with employment, financial issues, respite and recovery, through to lifelong care and independent living.

From sports and arts-based rehabilitation courses to tailored personal support – we're by veterans' sides, every step of the way. Every year we take thousands of families on breaks, so they can spend some much-needed quality time together.

We also support older veterans with home adaptations, nursing services and through six dedicated care homes, run just for ex-Service men and women and their dependants.

There are spacious, private rooms, comfortable lounges with sea views, and a conservatory overlooking the gardens. But it's not just the facilities that make Maurice House feel special.

What sets us apart is the extra effort our staff put into ensuring all our residents get the most out of life here. Our dedicated team of care assistants and nurses are proud of the excellent work they do to make Maurice House feel like a really special place.
