ROYAL CHARTER OF INCORPORATION

Recitals

Elizabeth the Second by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of Our other Realms and Territories Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETING!

WHEREAS His Majesty King George the Fifth in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five by Royal Charter (hereinafter called the 'Original Charter') dated the twenty-first day of April in the fifteenth year of His Reign constituted a Body Corporate and Politic by the name of the 'British Legion':

AND WHEREAS the purposes for which the Legion was incorporated were to inaugurate and maintain in a strong, positive, non-sectarian, united and democratic comradeship all those who serve or have served in Our Navy, Army or Air Force on Regular, Reserve or Auxiliary engagements so that neither their efforts nor their interests shall be forgotten and that just and equitable treatment shall be secured to them in respect of the difficulties caused in their lives as a result of their services and to consecrate and sanctify that comradeship by devotion to mutual service and helpfulness; and to perpetuate in the civil life of the Commonwealth and the world the principles for which the Nation stands, to inculcate a sense of loyalty to the Crown, Community and Nation, to promote unity amongst all classes, to secure peace and goodwill and to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy:

AND WHEREAS His Majesty King George the Sixth and We Ourselves were graciously pleased to grant Supplemental Charters of various dates amending the Original Charter:

AND WHEREAS We were graciously pleased to declare by the Supplemental Charter dated the tenth day of September one thousand nine hundred and seventy-one, that the British Legion should henceforth be known as 'The Royal British Legion':

AND WHEREAS by the Supplemental Charter dated the tenth day of April one thousand nine hundred and seventy-nine (hereinafter referred to as the '1979 Supplemental Charter') the Original Charter and all earlier Supplemental Charters were revoked except insofar as their provisions incorporated the Body Corporate and Politic by the name of The Royal British Legion and conferred upon it perpetual succession and authorised it to have a Common Seal and to sue and be sued:

AND WHEREAS by the Supplemental Charter dated the 27th day of May One Thousand Nine Hundred and Ninety-Three (the '1993 Supplemental Charter') the Original Charter and all earlier Supplemental Charters were further amended:

AND WHEREAS The Royal British Legion has by its humble petition represented unto Us that it is expedient that the Original Charter as amended by the 1979 Supplemental Charter and the 1993 Supplemental Charter should be further amended and that this can best be effected by the grant of a new Supplemental Charter replacing the 1993 Supplemental Charter and the earlier Supplemental Charters and has prayed for the grant of a new Supplemental Charter accordingly:

Articles

THEREFORE KNOW YE that We are pleased to command on behalf of our heirs and successors, as follows:

1. Revocation

This declaration revokes the 1993 Supplemental Charter, except for Articles 1 and 2. These Articles confirm The Royal British Legion as a corporate body for all time, with the right to have a Common Seal, to sue and be sued, and to hold and to use all the other powers of a corporate body. Anything that has been lawfully done under the 1993 Supplemental Charter remains legal and valid; the revocation does not affect it.
