

Inspiring the next generation to remember

Inspire young people to learn about Remembrance and their connection to it through the Royal British Legion's Teaching Remembrance Learning Programme for schools, community and youth groups, and families.

What we offer:

Free downloadable learning resources — choose from over 100 activities that are available all year round.

Free events — online workshops, assemblies, and more all designed to inspire young people to learn about Remembrance and their connection to it in an interactive way.

Curriculum-linked activities — supporting the National Curriculum and Curriculum for Wales.

To find out what we have planned for 2025 visit:
rbl.org.uk/teachingremembrance

